THE CITY COUNCIL OFFICIALLY INTRODUCED A BILL TO CAP NEW FOR-HIRE-VEHICLES + More

WIN THE VOTES!

Protect our victory!

On August 8th – the City Council will be voting. City Council Speaker Corey Johnson, the Mayor, Councilman Steve Levin who introduced the bill are all holding strong to support the drivers so we can end our financial crisis. Uber, Lyft & companies are spending their Wall Street billions to stop the City Council from doing the right thing. The City Council, the media, and the public need to HEAR & SEE THE DRIVERS!!!

My name is _____ and I'm an _____ driver and a member of the Taxi Workers Alliance. VOTE YES FOR THE CAP! WE NEED TO STOP ADDING MORE CARS RIGHT NOW. THERE ARE ALREADY 130,000. AND 42% OF THE TIME, UBER & LYFT ARE EMPTY. WE NEED THIS 12-MONTH BREAK SO WE CAN RECOVER FROM OUR CRISIS.

- What the Council is voting on Aug. 8th:
- Cap on new FHV cars for 12 months with exception for WAVs. Diamond renewals continue same. FHV drivers now leasing to own their car will be able to get a new vehicle license during the one year.
  - TLC authority to regulate App minimum pay for App drivers and App passenger fares
  - Creation of a new corporate license and TLC rulebook for the App companies
  - The Council also announced plans to introduce a bill to put a cap on FHV car vehicle financing and rental leases and to set up a health fund for all drivers.
